A Big Farmer.

"Hilly Jim" Patterson, of the Tri-ump neighborhood, was here Tuesday of last week, and the people of Oregon were, as they always are, glad to see him. He is one of our largest farmers now. Mr. Patterson began some twenty years ago with almost nothing we are told, and is now the owner of some eighteen hundred acres of Holt county real estate, has half a hundred or more horses and mules, a good herd of cattle, and more than two thousand head of hogs, besides large quantities of farming implements, of many varieties, shapes, kinds and patterns, distributed over his extensive possessions, and he has acquired all these, too, by honest industry. No man stands higher in the community where he lives, than does "Hilly Jim" Patterson.

Evangelical Church.

Revival services are now in progress at our church. Rev. E. H. Wendland preached his first sermon Tuesday evening. He will preach every evening of this week and twice on Sunday.

Rev. J. H. Kippler will preach at Nickels Grove next Sunday at 11 a.m.

James Taylor and wife, of the Bicknell neighborhood, were in St. Joseph Tuesday of this week, where Mr. Taylor went for a medical examination.

—Alma Hayden and family, of Omaha, Neb., are visiting with relatives and friends within and about Forest City. They came through in their car.
